Winter Break

The last day of regular classes will be December 16th before we go on break. The front desk will be open limited hours during this time. Regular classes will resume Monday, January 8th.

Hip Hop and Brittany Parks for Tap!

Robert Green was a top ten finalist on this past season of So You Think You Can Dance. After being noticed by some of the industry's top choreographers Robert went on to travel the country assisting industry legends such as Laurianne Gibson, Brian Friedman, Tabitha & Napoleon D'Umo, and many more. In 2013, Robert followed his heart and took a giant leap of faith by moving out to Los Angeles to pursue an entirely new career in the dance industry. In 2015, Robert was one of 12 guys selected to dance around the globe on Taylor Swift's record-breaking 1989 WORLD

TOUR. Robert has since gotten the opportunity to dance for the industry's top artists including Justin Timberlake, Selena Gomez, The Weekend, Mary J. Blige, Ricky Martin, Pitbull, Ellie Goulding, as well as the chance to choreograph for Tove Lo and Charli XCX.

Brittany Parks recently made her Broadway debut as a jazz dancer in "Shuffle Along." She danced in numerous episodes, and served as Assistant Choreographer for the television show "Glee," and also the associate choreographer for the film Annie (2014). Brittany danced in "Teen Beach 2" a Disney Channel original movie, and LA LA LAND. On top of the tv/film industry, she has danced with artists such as Beyonce on many occasions, Rihanna, Kanye West, Katy Perry, and others.

We can't wait for our dancers to train with them! Sign ups are open to Company Team Members only until February 1st. Get your dancer signed up today!!
